Chapter III

Vocabulary

capriciously – changing abruptly and without apparent reason prepossessing – or impressing favorably; pleasing; attractive treacle – molasses
tryst – an appointment to meet at a specified time and place

1. Briefly describe Raskolnikov’s landlady, Pashenka. What other relationship have Pashenka and Raskolnikov shared in the past other then tenant and landlady?

2. How does Razumihin aid Raskolnikov by intervening with Pashenka?

3. What does Raskolnikov say about the murders while he is delirious, and what does Razumihin think about his ravings?

4. Where does Razumihin get the money he uses to purchase new clothing for Raskolnikov?